1 COME NOW PLAINTIFFS JHADA COLE et al and file this First Amended Complaint for one
2 cause of action against Defendants QUINSTREET INC. et al and allege as follows:

4 I. INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY OF THE COMPLAINT

5 1. Plaintiffs JHADA COLE et al bring this Action against professional “spamvertiser”
6 QUINSTREET INC. and its subsidiary/sister entities (collectively “QUINSTREET”) and its 7 advertising networks and senders (“Marketing Partners”), for advertising in/conspiring to 8 advertise in 418 unlawful unsolicited commercial emails (“spams”) that Plaintiffs received at 9 their California email addresses within one year prior to filing the Complaint. The spams are full 10 of false and misrepresented content, and Plaintiffs cannot tell who sent any of them. Exhibits
11 A1-A13, incorporated herein by reference, are representative samples of the content of the spams 12 at issue.

13 2. No Plaintiff gave “direct consent” to receive commercial email advertisements from, or 14 had a “preexisting or current business relationship” with, QUINSTREET – the entity advertised 15 in the spams. Furthermore, although Plaintiffs cannot identify the spams’ senders, to the best of 16 Plaintiffs’ knowledge, they never gave the senders permission to send them commercial email 17 advertisements. Even in the extremely unlikely event that Plaintiffs had given permission to 18 receive emails from, or had “preexisting or current business relationships” with, the spams’
19 senders, that is not same as “direct consent” to, or a “preexisting or current business relationship”
20 with, QUINSTREET.

21 3. The spams all materially violated Cal. Business & Professions Code § 17529.5 (“Section 22 17529.5”) due to the inclusion of: a) third parties’ domain names without permission of the third 23 parties; b) materially false and deceptive information contained in or accompanying the email 24 headers; and/or c) Subject Lines misleading relative to the contents or subject matter of the 25 emails.

26 4. QUINSTREET is strictly liable for advertising in the spams even though QUINSTREET 27 did not actually send them. QUINSTREET’s Marketing Partners are liable on the basis of civil 28 conspiracy, as discussed herein.

29 5. Spam recipients are not required to allege or prove reliance or actual damages to have 30 standing. See Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17529.5(b)(1)(A)(iii). Plaintiffs elect to recover
31

1 statutory damages only and forego recovery of any actual damages. See Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code
2 § 17529.5(b)(1)(B).

3 6. This Court should award liquidated damages of $1,000 per email as provided by 4 Section 17529.5(b)(1)(B)(ii), and not consider any reduction in damages, because 5 QUINSTREET and its Marketing Partners failed to implement reasonably effective systems to 6 prevent advertising in/conspiring to advertise in unlawful spams. The unlawful elements of these 7 spams represent willful acts of falsity and deception, rather than clerical errors.

8 7. This Court should award Plaintiffs their attorneys' fees pursuant to Section
9 17529.5(b)(1)(C). See also Cal. Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, providing for attorneys' fees
10 when private parties bear the costs of litigation that confers a benefit on a large class of persons;
11 here, by reducing the amount of false and deceptive spam received by California residents.

12 II. PARTIES

13 A. Plaintiffs

14 8. JHADA COLE ("COLE") was domiciled in and a citizen of the State of California 15 (Sacramento County), when he received the spams at issue. The spams at issue were sent to 16 COLE's email address blakkcandle@gmail.com that he ordinarily accesses from California.

17 9. LASHANNA GRANT ("GRANT") was domiciled in and a citizen of the State of 18 California (Sacramento County), when she received the spams at issue. The spams at issue were 19 sent to GRANT's email address lashannagrants72@gmail.com that she ordinarily accesses from 20 California.

21 10. STEPHANIE HELLER ("HELLER") was domiciled in and a citizen of the State of 22 California (San Bernardino County), when she received the spams at issue. The spams at issue
23 were sent to HELLER's email addresses smsegal1975@yahoo.com and smheller1975@gmail.com
24 that she ordinarily accesses from California.

25 11. COQUESE HOLDEN ("HOLDENC") was domiciled in and a citizen of the State of 26 California (Sacramento County), when she received the spams at issue. The spams at issue were 27 sent to HOLDENC's email address quesehold456@yahoo.com that she ordinarily accesses from 28 California.

29 12. MICHAEL HOLDEN ("HOLDENM") was domiciled in and a citizen of the State of 30 California (Sacramento County), when he received the spams at issue. The spams at issue were 31

1 sent to HOLDENM's email address michaelholden03@gmail.com that he ordinarily accesses
2 from California.

3 13. STEPHANIE JOBE ("JOBES") was domiciled in and a citizen of the State of California
4 (Solano County), when she received the spams at issue. The spams at issue were sent to 5 JOBES's email address stephanie0982@hotmail.com that she ordinarily accesses from 6 California.

7 14. TIMOTHY JOBE ("JOBET") was domiciled in and a citizen of the State of California
8 (Solano County), when he received the spams at issue. The spams at issue were sent to JOBET's 9 email address timothyjobe@gmail.com that he ordinarily accesses from California.

10 15. Plaintiffs' joinder in this Action is proper pursuant to Cal. Code of Civil Procedure § 378
11 because Plaintiffs seek relief based on the same series of transactions or occurrences: all received 12 similar spams in the same general time period advertising QUINSTREET's websites and its 13 services, sent by QUINSTREET's Marketing Partners. The same questions of law (e.g., 14 violations of Section 17529.5, strict liability) and fact (e.g., direct consent, practices and 15 procedures to prevent advertising in unlawful spam) will arise in this Action. The fact that each 16 Plaintiff does not sue for the same spams does not bar joinder: "It is not necessary that each 17 plaintiff be interested as to every cause of action or as to all relief prayed for. Judgment may be 18 given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective right to relief." Cal. Code 19 Civ. Proc. § 378(b).

20 B. Defendants

21 1. QuinStreet Entities

22 16. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant QUINSTREET
23 INC. is now, and was at all relevant times, a Delaware corporation with its principal place of 24 business in Foster City, California, and the registrant/operator of the guidetolenders.com and 25 amone.com domain names and websites, which offer "loan comparison" services.

26 17. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant QUINSTREET
27 MEDIA INC. is now, and was at all relevant times, a California corporation with its principal 28 place of business in Foster City, California.

29 18. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant QUINSTREET PL
30 INC. is now, and was at all relevant times, a California corporation (and a wholly-owned 31 subsidiary of QUINSTREET INC.) with its principal place of business in Foster City, California.

1 19. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant QUINSTREET
2 PROPERTIES INC. is now, and was at all relevant times, a California corporation with its 3 principal place of business in Foster City, California.

4 20. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendant AMONE CORP.
5 (doing business in California as “AmOne Financial”) was a Florida corporation (and a wholly-
6 owned subsidiary of QUINSTREET INC.) with its principal place of business in Plantation,
7 Florida until February 2019, when it merged with and into QUINSTREET PL INC.

8 21. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that QUINSTREET INC., 9 QUINSTREET MEDIA INC., QUINSTREET PL INC., QUINSTREET PROPERTIES INC., 10 and AMONE CORP. shared physical assets, addresses, finances, and intellectual property such 11 that they failed to follow proper corporate formalities, and each is an alter ego of the other.
12 Furthermore, according to 2019 filings with the California Secretary of State, the four QuinStreet 13 entities share the same top executives:

Corporation	Chief Executive Officer	Secretary	Chief Financial Officer
QuinStreet Inc.	Douglas J. Valenti	Martin J. Collins	Gregory M. Wong
QuinStreet Media Inc.	Douglas J. Valenti	Martin J. Collins	Douglas J. Valenti
QuinStreet PL Inc.	Douglas J. Valenti	Martin J. Collins	Gregory M. Wong
QuinStreet Properties Inc.	Douglas J. Valenti	Martin J. Collins	Douglas J. Valenti

15
16
17
18 In fact, Defendants themselves appear to treat the various corporate entities interchangeably in 19 their communications to the public. For example, the guidetolenders.com domain name is 20 registered to QUINSTREET INC. and the Terms of Use on the guidetolenders.com website refer 21 to QUINSTREET INC., but the guidetolenders.com website’s homepage refers to 22 QUINSTREET MEDIA INC. and the guidetolenders.com website’s Disclosures and Licenses
23 names both QUINSTREET MEDIA INC. and QUINSTREET PROPERTIES INC. and refers to 24 them collectively as “QuinStreet Media.” At the same time, GRANT and HOLDENC received 25 spams advertising “Guide to Lenders” in the body but hyperlinking to the amone.com website,
26 and HOLDENC and JOBET received spams advertising “AmOne” in the body but hyperlinking 27 to the guidetolenders.com website. (In total, 382 of the 418 spams (91.4%) link to 28 guidetolenders.com and 36 (8.6%) link to amone.com.) For these reasons, Plaintiffs hereafter
29 refer to QUINSTREET INC., QUINSTREET MEDIA INC., QUINSTREET PL INC.,
30 QUINSTREET PROPERTIES INC., and AMONE CORP. collectively as “QUINSTREET.”
31

1 2. Marketing Partners / DOE Defendants

2 22. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that QUINSTREET entered into
3 various contracts (“Marketing Partner Contracts”) with various spam networks and senders
4 (“Marketing Partners”) who actually sent the spams at issue; QUINSTREET did not send any of 5 the spams itself. Pursuant to the terms of the Marketing Partner Contracts, QUINSTREET and 6 each respective Marketing Partner agreed to share in the benefits and risks derived from email
7 advertising campaigns advertising QUINSTREET’s websites/products and the Marketing
8 Partners’ services. Plaintiffs further allege, on information and belief, that pursuant to the terms
9 of the Marketing Partner Contracts, the Marketing Partner Defendants who sent the spams (the 10 senders) used their own lists of email addresses (as opposed to lists provided by QUINSTREET) 11 as the source of intended recipients for the spams.

12 23. Plaintiffs further allege that the Marketing Partner Defendants made false representations 13 to QUINSTREET that Plaintiffs “opted in” to receive commercial email advertisements from 14 them. Plaintiffs never “opted in” to receive the spams at issue in this case.

15 24. Plaintiffs further allege, on information and belief, that in some cases, the Marketing 16 Partners (as opposed to QUINSTREET) created the unlawful content in the emails, such as the 17 inclusion of third parties’ domain names without permission, From Names, registration
18 information for the domain names in the Sender Email Addresses, Subject Lines, untraceable 19 sender names/addresses in the bodies, and registration information for the domain names in the 20 clickthrough hyperlinks.

21 25. In the exemplar spam shown at Exhibit A1, QUINSTREET’s (the advertiser) address
22 appears first (950 Tower Lane, Foster City, CA 94404), and then another address, 848 N.
23 Rainbow Road #8004, Las Vegas, NV 89107 is listed; however nothing in either the email or 24 publicly available databases identifies the person or entity claiming the Rainbow Road address.
25 That address is a box at a Commercial Mail Receiving Agency (“CMRA”), and the boxholder’s
26 true identity is private and untraceable without a subpoena or court order. Plaintiffs are unaware 27 of the true identity of the person or entity who claims the Rainbow Road address. In fact,
28 Plaintiffs are unaware if the Rainbow Road Address is associated with any person or entity
29 involved in these spams.

30 26. Plaintiffs do not currently know the identities of QUINSTREET’s spam networks and 31 refer to them as DOES 1-100.

1 27. Plaintiffs do not currently know the identities of QUINSTREET’s senders and refer to 2 them as DOES 101-500. The spams’ sending domain names and the second addresses (and 3 occasionally a purported name of an individual or business entity) that appear in most of the 4 spams are shown in Exhibit B and are incorporated herein by reference. On information and 5 belief, these purported addresses: a) literally do not exist; b) are otherwise false; c) are boxes at 6 CMRAs, the Post Office, or freight forwarders, although Plaintiffs have no evidence that anyone 7 connected with these spams actually contracted to use those boxes; or d) belong to other,
8 unrelated businesses. Exhibit C, incorporated herein by reference, is a list of the 210 domain 9 names that appear in the spams’ sending email addresses.

10 28. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or legal capacities of the Defendants designated 11 herein as DOES 1 through 500, inclusive and therefore sue said Defendants under the fictitious 12 name of “DOE.” Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each of the 13 Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the matters 14 alleged in this complaint, and is legally responsible in some manner for causing the injuries and 15 damages of which Plaintiffs complain. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege 16 that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE Defendant was, at all times relevant to 17 the matters alleged within this complaint, acting in conjunction with the named Defendants,
18 whether as a director, officer, employee, partner, affiliate, customer, participant, or co-
19 conspirator. When the identities of DOE Defendants 1-500 are discovered, or otherwise made
20 available, Plaintiffs will seek to amend this Complaint to allege their identity and involvement 21 with particularity.

22 3. Joinder

23 29. Defendants’ joinder in this Action is proper pursuant to Cal. Code of Civil Procedure
24 § 379 because Plaintiffs seek relief jointly and severally from Defendants arising from the same 25 series of transactions and occurrences, and because common questions of law and fact as to 26 Defendants will arise in the Action. The fact that all Defendants may not be implicated in all 27 spams does not bar joinder: “It is not necessary that each defendant be interested as to every 28 cause of action or as to all relief prayed for. Judgment may be given against one or more 29 defendants according to their respective liabilities.” Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 379.

1 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2 A. Unlimited Jurisdiction is Proper in a California Superior Court

3 30. This California Superior Court has jurisdiction over the Action because: a) Defendants
4 targeted their advertisements at Plaintiffs in California, b) the amount in controversy exceeds 5 $25,000, and c) Plaintiffs and QUINSTREET claim citizenship and primary places of 6 residency/business in California.

7 B. Venue is Proper in Sacramento County

8 31. Venue is proper in Sacramento County because four of the seven Plaintiffs (COLE, 9 GRANT, HOLDENC, HOLDENM) received the spams at issue in Sacramento. To the extent
10 they may have been injured or their rights violated, such harms occurred in Sacramento County.
11

12 IV. 418 UNLAWFUL QUINSTREET SPAMS

13 32. There are 418 spams at issue in this Action. Plaintiffs are attaching 13 exemplar spams –
14 Exhibits A1-A13 – incorporated herein by reference, which illustrate the variety of content
15 contained in the spams. The preceding Exhibit A provides a helpful summary table, highlighting 16 the key elements of the spams.

17 A. The Emails at Issue are “Spams”; Recipients and Counts

18 33. The emails at issue are “commercial email advertisements”¹ because they were initiated 19 for the purpose of advertising and promoting QUINSTREET’s websites and services.

20 34. The emails are “unsolicited commercial email advertisements”² because no Plaintiff gave 21 “direct consent”³ to, or had a “preexisting or current business relationship”⁴ with QUINSTREET.
22

24 ¹ “‘Commercial e-mail advertisement’ means any electronic mail message initiated for the 25 purpose of advertising or promoting the lease, sale, rental, gift offer, or other disposition of any property, goods, services, or extension of credit.” Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17529.1(c).

26 ² “‘Unsolicited commercial e-mail advertisement’ means a commercial e-mail advertisement sent 27 to a recipient who meets both of the following criteria: (1) The recipient has not provided direct 28 consent to receive advertisements from the advertiser. (2) The recipient does not have a 29 preexisting or current business relationship, as defined in subdivision (l), with the advertiser 30 promoting the lease, sale, rental, gift offer, or other disposition of any property, goods, services, or extension of credit.” Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17529.1(o).

31 ³ “‘Direct consent’ means that the recipient has expressly consented to receive e-mail advertisements from the advertiser, either in response to a clear and conspicuous request for the

1 35. Because QUINSTREET’s senders took extensive steps to misrepresent their identities, as 2 described herein, Plaintiffs cannot identify them. However, to the best of their knowledge,
3 Plaintiffs did not consent or acquiesce to receive any commercial email advertisements from 4 them either, including the spams at issue.

5 36. Plaintiffs did not waive any claims related to the spams at issue.

6 37. Defendant QUINSTREET advertised in, and its Marketing Partners conspired with 7 QUINSTREET to advertise QUINSTREET in, 418 unlawful spams that Plaintiffs received at 8 their “California email addresses”⁵:

PLAINTIFF	SPAMS RECEIVED	PLAINTIFF	SPAMS RECEIVED
COLE	24	HOLDENM	56
GRANT	60	JOBES	19
HELLER	128	JOBET	95
HOLDENC	36	TOTAL	418

10
11
12
13 38. The spams are all unlawful because they include: a) third parties’ domain names without 14 permission; b) materially false and deceptive information contained in or accompanying the 15 email headers (including Subject Lines), and/or c) Subject Lines misleading as to the contents or 16 subject matter of the emails, as described in more detail below.

17 39. Although “fraud” in the context of a Cal. Business & Professions Code § 17500 action
18 does not mean the common-law tort,⁶ Plaintiffs are not bringing claims for fraud and are not 19 required to plead with particularity. The exemplar spams (Exhibits A1-A13) and the examples 20

21 consent or at the recipient's own initiative.” Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17529.1(d) (emphasis 22 added).

23 ⁴ “‘Preexisting or current business relationship,’ as used in connection with the sending of a 24 commercial e-mail advertisement, means that the recipient has made an inquiry and has provided 25 his or her e-mail address, or has made an application, purchase, or transaction, with or without 26 consideration, regarding products or services offered by the advertiser. [.]” Cal. Bus. & Prof.
Code § 17529.1(l).

27 ⁵ “‘California e-mail address’ means 1) An e-mail address furnished by an electronic mail service
28 provider that sends bills for furnishing and maintaining that e-mail address to a mailing address
29 in this state; 2) An e-mail address ordinarily accessed from a computer located in this state; 3)
An e-mail address furnished to a resident of this state.” Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17529.1(b).

30 ⁶ See e.g. Chapman v. Skype Inc., 220 Cal. App. 4th 217, 226-27 (2d Dist. 2013); Buller v. Sutter
31 Health, 160 Cal. App. 4th 981, 986 (1st Dist. 2008); Day v. AT&T Corporation, 63 Cal. App. 4th 325, 332 (1st Dist. 1998).

1 contained in the text herein, and the fact that Plaintiffs provided many of the spams to 2 QUINSTREET long before filing this Action, put QUINSTREET sufficiently on notice as to the 3 nature of Plaintiffs' claims. Plaintiffs cannot practicably include every instance of a statutory 4 violation in exemplar spams, so Exhibit D, incorporated herein by reference, is a table setting
5 forth, for each spam at issue in the Action, the recipient, recipient's email address, date/time,
6 From Name, sending domain name, registrant of the sending domain name, Subject Line (and 7 any statutory violations), third parties' domain names used without permission, any advertiser
8 (i.e. QUINSTREET) identification/address in the body, any other identification/address in the 9 body, the nature of the misrepresentation in the other identification/address, the presence of a 10 purported unsubscribe link, and the hyperlinked landing webpage. Exhibit D, Column K also 11 identifies the spams with missing images that do not expressly identify QUINSTREET on their 12 faces (17), or are missing some images but still contain information identifying QUINSTREET 13 on their faces (2).

14 B. Section 17529.5 Regulates Falsity and Deceptive Content in Commercial Emails

15 40. An email contains two major sections, the message header and the message body. Email
16 headers are structured into fields including: From, To, CC, Subject, and Date. See Wikipedia,
17 The Free Encyclopedia, Email, <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Email> (last visited Feb. 3, 2020);
18 and P. Resnick, Ed., Request for Comment⁷ 5322, Internet Message Format (Oct. 2008), 19 available at <https://tools.ietf.org/html/rfc5322>.

20 41. Section 17529.5(a)(1) prohibits third party domain names without permission, anywhere
21 in a spam. See Section C, below.

22 42. Section 17529.5(a)(2) prohibits falsified or misrepresented information contained in or 23 accompanying email headers. See Sections D-F, below.

24 43. Section 17529.5(a)(3) prohibits Subject Lines likely to mislead a reasonable recipient
25 about the contents or subject matter of the email. See Section G, below.

26 44. As discussed below, the spams at issue in this Action are full of misrepresentations. Each 27 one violates Section 17529.5 in at least one way; most violate the statute in multiple ways.

28 45. Email headers and the underlying source code cannot be changed after an email is sent.
29 However, to the extent that the source code causes images hosted on websites to appear in the 30 ⁷ Because computers must use standard protocols in order to communicate, the Internet 31 Engineering Task Force created a collection of "Requests for Comment" ("RFCs") that define the rules that enable email to work.

1 body of a spam, those images can be changed or removed. Indeed, 19 of the spams at issue have 2 “missing” images for that reason. See Exhibit A13 and Exhibit D, Column K.

3 C. Spams Containing a Third Party’s Domain Name Without Permission Violate Cal.
4 Business & Professions Code § 17529.5(a)(1)

5 46. Section 17529.5(a)(1) prohibits spams containing or accompanied by a third party’s
6 domain name without the permission of the third party. Unlike (a)(2) violations, (a)(1) violations
7 are not limited to email headers.

8 47. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that 308 of the 418 spams (73.7%) 9 advertising QUINSTREET contain a third party’s domain name in the clickthrough links – the 10 hyperlinks embedded in the emails which, when the recipient clicks them, launch an Internet
11 browser that ultimately advertises QUINSTREET’s websites. See Exhibit D, Column L.

- 12 • 219 of the 418 spams (52.4%) advertising QUINSTREET contain Bitly Inc.’s 13 domain names bit.ly or bitly.com. See Exhibits A9, A11. Plaintiffs allege that 14 QUINSTREET and its Marketing Partners did not have permission from Bitly
15 Inc. to use its domain names in these spams.
- 16 • 89 of the 418 spams (21.3%) advertising QUINSTREET contain TinyURL LLC’s
17 domain name tinyurl.com. See Exhibits A1, A12, A13. Plaintiffs allege that 18 QUINSTREET and its Marketing Partners did not have permission from 19 TinyURL LLC to use its domain names in these spams.

20 48. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that QUINSTREET’s Marketing
21 Partners included bit.ly/bitly.com or tinyurl.com in the clickthrough links because if they used
22 their own domain names, it would be more likely that spam filters would be able to automatically 23 identify the domain names as being associated with spammers, and block the spams from being 24 delivered to the recipients. On the other hand, emails containing bit.ly/bitly.com or tinyurl.com
25 in the clickthrough links are more likely to be treated as legitimate emails and not spams, and so
26 are less likely to be blocked. Thus, the spams materially violate the statute because they falsely 27 imply that they have Bitly Inc. and TinyURL LLC’s permission to include their domain names in 28 spam, which they do not.

29 D. Spams With Generic From Names Misrepresent Who is Advertising in the Spams and 30 Violate Cal. Business & Professions Code § 17529.5(a)(2)

31 49. Section 17529.5(a)(2) prohibits falsified or misrepresented information contained in or accompanying email headers.

1 50. The From Name field is part of email headers. The From Name does not include the 2 Sender Email Address. In the exemplar spams shown in Exhibit A1-A13, the From Names are:
3 “Get a loan NOW” (A1, A13), “Financial Help” (A2), “Loans-Available” (A3, A9), “Lender
4 Services” (A4), “Rick Crowe” (A5), “chelsea h allen” (A6), “Quick Loans” (A7, A8), “Need A 5 Loan” (A10), “Ben Watson” (A11), and “PersonalLoans” (A12).

6 51. The From Name in an email’s headers is, not surprisingly, supposed to identify who the 7 email is from; it is not supposed to be an advertising message. According to RFC 5322 at 8 ¶ 3.6.2, the “From:” field specifies the author of the message.

9 52. Plaintiffs do not insist on any particular label (e.g., “Guide to Lenders,” “QuinStreet,” 10 “QuinStreet Media Inc.,” etc.) in the From Name field. Rather, Plaintiffs contend that the text, 11 whatever it is, cannot misrepresent who the emails are from.

12 53. The From Name is important to an email user, because in almost all email programs, the 13 inbox view only displays a list of emails, showing the From Name, Subject Line, and Send Date.
14 Therefore, even if the body of the email identifies the advertiser, the recipient will not know that 15 until s/he has already clicked to open the email.

16 54. Indeed, empirical evidence has 17 demonstrated that the From Name is the 18 most important factor email recipients use
19 to determine whether or not an email is 20 spam. See eMarketer, E-Mail Open Rates
21 Hinge on ‘Subject’ Line, available at

22 <http://www.emarketer.com/Article/E-Mail-Open-Rates-Hinge-on-Subject-Line/1005550> (Oct.
23 31, 2007). Thus, a From Name that misrepresents who a spam is from is not a mere technical 24 error; rather, it is a material misrepresentation of the most important part of the email header.

25 55. In Balsam v. Trancos Inc., the unlawful spams were sent from generic From Names that 26 did not identify anyone. The trial court ruled, and the court of appeal affirmed in all respects, 27 that generic From Names (“Paid Survey,” “Your Business,” “Christian Dating,” “Your 28 Promotion,” “Bank Wire Transfer Available,” “Dating Generic,” and “Join Elite”) violate the 29 statute because they misrepresent who the emails are from. 203 Cal. App. 4th 1083, 1088, 1090-
30 91, 1093 (1st Dist. 2012), petition for review denied, 2012 Cal. LEXIS 4979 (Cal. May 23, 31 2012), petition for certiorari denied, 2012 U.S. LEXIS 8423 (U.S. Oct. 29, 2012), petition for

1 rehearing denied, 2013 U.S. LEXIS 243 (U.S. Jan. 7, 2013).⁸ More specifically, Balsam
2 confirmed that generic From Names that “do not exist or are otherwise misrepresented when they 3 do not represent any real company and cannot be readily traced back to the true owner/sender”
4 violate the statute. Id. at 1093. These seven emails were adjudged to be unlawful, even though 5 most identified the advertiser in the body. Id. at 1091, 1093. Therefore, truthful information in 6 the body of a spam does not cure misrepresented header information. Indeed, Balsam is 7 consistent with California law on false advertising in general, holding that misrepresentations
8 cannot be “cured” by subsequent truth. Brady v. Bayer Corp., 26 Cal. App. 5th 1156 (4th Dist.
9 2018), citing with approval Williams v. Gerber Products Company, 552 F.3d. 934, 939-40 (9th 10 Cir. 2008) (ruling based on California law).

11 1. The From Name of Every Single Spam at Issue Misrepresents Who the Spams are 12 From

13 56. The vast majority of the spams at issue (400 of 418 (95.7%)) have generic From Names
14 (e.g. “Get a loan NOW”). See Exhibit A1 and Exhibit D, Column C. Just like the From Names
15 in Balsam, these spams misrepresent who the spams are really from, and could just as easily
16 represent a QUINSTREET competitor.

17 57. Even worse, 18 of the 418 spams (4.3%) have a From Name purporting to be an actual 18 person’s name (e.g. “Ben Watson”), but no such people had anything to do with sending any of 19 the spams at issue. See Exhibit A11 and Exhibit D, Columns C-D. These From Names are false 20 on their face.

21 2. The Senders’ True Identities are Not Readily Ascertainable in the Bodies of the 22 Spams

23 58. Regardless of whether or not QUINSTREET’s name and/or address is present as the 24 advertiser, none of the spams at issue identify the sender in the body. In fact, many of the spams
25 actively misrepresent the senders’ identities. See Exhibit B and Exhibit D, Columns N-O.
26 Plaintiffs have no idea who any of the senders are.

- 27 • Mere Addresses at CMRAs or P.O. Boxes. Most of the spams (338 of 418 28 (80.9%)) do not identify any sender, and include only an untraceable box at a

29 ⁸ Although Plaintiffs do not sue under the federal CAN-SPAM Act, Plaintiffs note that the 30 Federal Trade Commission also stated that the From Name “must be accurate and identify the 31 person or business who initiated the message.” See Federal Trade Commission, CAN-SPAM
Act: A Compliance Guide for Business, available at http://www.business.ftc.gov/documents/bus61-can-spam-act-compliance-guide-business.

1 CMRA (e.g. the Rainbow Road address in Exhibit A1) or a United States Postal 2 Service P.O. Box. It is well-established that providing an entity’s address is not 3 the same as identifying an entity. Balsam, 203 Cal. App. 4th at 1101.

- 4 • Untraceable Entities at CMRAs or P.O. Boxes. In 18 of the 418 spams (4.3%), 5 the spams include the names of nonexistent entities along with a CMRA or P.O.
6 Box, e.g. “Smart TV Set Up” at a CMRA in Orlando, FL in the bodies. See
7 Exhibit A8.
- 8 • Untraceable Entities “American Job Board” and Related FBNs. Sixteen of 9 the 418 spams (3.8%) include the fictitious business names “American Job
10 Board,” “Providence Resource Group,” “Resourceful Julie,” “Resources In Your 11 Area” (see Exhibit A6), or “Smart Credit Help,” using three CMRA addresses and 12 a cryotherapy spa’s address in Illinois. None of these are real entities, and in fact,
13 Plaintiffs allege that there is one actual person or entity using these various FBNs 14 and addresses to further hide its true identity.
- 15 • Untraceable Entities at Other Business Addresses. Five of the 418 spams
16 (1.2%) – in addition to “Resources in Your Area” at the cryotherapy address
17 above – name untraceable entities at business addresses, that are not CMRAs or 18 P.O. Boxes, in the body. For example, Plaintiffs received spams naming OMN at 19 a Chicago address that is a storage facility.
- 20 • False Individuals’ Names. Nineteen of the 418 spams (4.5%) claim that the 21 QUINSTREET offers were sent to the recipients by individuals, but the names are 22 all false. Twelve of the spams claim they were sent by various false names (e.g.
23 Tara Duncan) at nonexistent addresses. See Exhibit A9. Seven of the spams 24 claim they were sent by “Courtney Perry” at the address of a dentist, Dr. Elliot M.
25 Zank DDS, in Boynton Beach, FL. See Exhibit A3. Plaintiffs are informed and 26 believe that Dr. Zank’s office has nothing to do with QUINSTREET, and there 27 was never anyone named Courtney Perry associated with Dr. Zank.
- 28 • No Reference to Senders’ Identity. Finally, 22 of the 418 spams (5.3%)
29 misrepresent the senders’ identities by omission because they show nothing
30 related to the sender – no purported name, and no purported address. See Exhibit 31 A10.

1 3. *The Spams at Issue Contain Purported Unsubscribe Links, But Those Links Do
2 Not Identify the Senders

3 59. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that purported unsubscribe links
4 might go to QUINSTREET’s Marketing Partners’ websites or domain names. See Exhibit D,
5 Column P. But that does not change the fact that the spams at issue misrepresent the senders’
6 identities, and Plaintiffs have no idea who they are. Moreover, since at least 2007 and 7 continuing to the present, the California Attorney General has specifically advised spam
8 recipients not to click purported unsubscribe links in unsolicited emails. Xavier Becerra/
9 California Attorney General, SPAM, available at <https://oag.ca.gov/consumers/general/spam10>
10 (last visited June 4, 2020).

11 60. More importantly, the presence of purported opt-links to unknown third parties (who 12 have misrepresented and concealed their identities) does not cure prior misrepresentations and 13 falsehoods in violation of California law. Indeed, giving someone the option to opt out of 14 unsolicited and false advertising is not a defense against false advertising. Thus, the presence or 15 absence of purported opt-out links has no bearing on the legality of the spams at issue.

16 E. Spams Sent From Domain Names Registered So As to Not Be Readily Traceable to the 17 Sender Violate Cal. Business & Professions Code § 17529.5(a)(2)

18 61. Section 17529.5(a)(2) prohibits falsified, misrepresented, or forged information contained 19 in or accompanying in email headers.

20 62. Registration information for the domain names used to send spams is information
21 contained in or accompanying email headers.

22 63. “[H]eader information in a commercial e-mail is falsified or misrepresented for purposes 23 of section 17529.5(a)(2) when it uses a sender domain name that neither identifies the actual 24 sender on its face nor is readily traceable to the sender using a publicly available online database 25 such as WHOIS.” Balsam, 203 Cal. App. 4th at 1101 (emphasis in original).

26 64. The spams that Plaintiffs received advertising QUINSTREET were sent from domain
27 names that did not identify Defendants or the sender on their face, and were not readily traceable 28 to the sender using a publicly available online database such as WHOIS. See Exhibits B-C and 29 Exhibit D, Columns E-G. Such domain registration violates Section 17529.5. Balsam, 203 Cal.
30 App. 4th at 1097-1101. For example:

- 31 • Proxy-Registered Domain Names. 331 of 418 spams (79.2%) of the spams were sent from proxy-registered domain names (and did not identify the sender on

1 their faces), including hearyourvoicez.com. See Exhibit A1. Proxy-registration 2 means that a person cannot query a publicly accessible database to identify the 3 senders. Balsam held that sending a spam from a domain name that is proxy-
4 registered⁹ is a misrepresentation as to who the sender actually is, and violates 5 Section 17529.5.

- 6 • Domain Names Registered to False Names and Untraceable Entities at 7 CMRAs/PO Boxes. 49 of 418 spams (11.7%) were registered to nonexistent
8 entities (corporations, LLC’s, individuals, etc.) and/or boxes at commercial mail 9 receiving agencies or fake addresses, so as to not be readily traceable to the 10 sender by querying the Whois database. For example, Plaintiffs received spams
11 sent from the domain name passrant.com (see Exhibit A8) registered to “Premium 12 Gifts for Men,” a nonexistent entity claiming an address at a CMRA in San 13 Francisco, CA. Plaintiffs also received spams sent from the domain name
14 apiene.com (see Exhibit A9), registered to Eldridge Engles, a false name, 15 claiming a nonexistent address in Jackson, MS. Moreover, that very same
16 apiene.com spams is the one that claims in the body that was sent by Tara
17 Duncan, at another nonexistent address in Mchenry, IL. QUINSTREET’s
18 senders’ blatant and undeniable falsifications while registering domain names
19 misrepresent their identities and make it impossible for Plaintiffs to identify them.
- 20 • Unregistered Domain Names are Not Readily Traceable. 38 of the 418 21 spams (9.1%) were purportedly sent from domain names – e.g. wisby.org (see 22 Exhibit A12) – that were never registered at all and the headers were forged (a 23 violation of Section 17529.5(a)(2)) to show those domain names. Such domain 24 names do not identify the senders on their faces, nor are they readily traceable to 25 the entity(-ies) that actually sent the spams.

26 65. Thus, for all of the spams at issue, Plaintiffs could not identify QUINSTREET’s 27 Marketing Partner who sent the spams by querying the Whois database for the purported sending 28 domain names (or even through further research, such as putting those domain names into an 29 Internet browser to look for associated websites, and searching Secretary of State websites for 30

31 ⁹ Balsam used the term “private registration,” but the domains were actually proxy-registered (using the service Domains by Proxy). 203 Cal. App. 4th at 1090, n7.

1 the purported senders), due to QUINSTREET’s senders’ willful acts of falsity and deception. In 2 those instances, the only way a recipient could even attempt to identify the sender responsible for 3 the spam is to click on a link contained in the spam or search the source code of the email – both 4 of which require opening the email first – in direct violation of Balsam.

5 F. Spams With “Absolutely” False and Misrepresented Subject Lines Violate Cal.
6 Business & Professions Code § 17529.5(a)(2)

7 66. Section 17529.5(a)(2) prohibits falsified, misrepresented, or forged information in email 8 headers.

9 67. The Subject Line is part of email headers.

10 68. Twenty-three of the 418 spams (5.5%) that Plaintiffs received contain Subject Lines with 11 falsified and/or misrepresented information. Plaintiffs allege that these Subject Lines are 12 absolutely false and/or misrepresented and violate Section 17529.5(a)(2). Examples include “E-
13 sign your Deposit Form,” “Requested Loan Information Enclosed,” “Your pending approval,” 14 and “RE: Your Recent Application” (Exhibits A4, A5, A6, A11), which are all materially 15 falsified/misrepresented because they all state or imply communications, transactions, and/or 16 relationships between Plaintiffs and QUINSTREET that never existed.

17 G. Spams With Subject Lines Misleading Relative to the Contents or Subject Matter of the 18 Spams Violate Business & Professions Code § 17529.5(a)(3)

19 69. Section 17529.5(a)(3) prohibits Subject Lines that are likely to mislead a reasonable 20 recipient about a material fact regarding the contents or subject matter of the emails.

21 70. Forty-one of the 418 spams (9.8%) violate Section 17529.5(a)(3). This includes the 23
22 described in the previous section that also violate Section 17529.5(a)(2), because an ordinary
23 recipient is likely to believe that the QUINSTREET emails at issue in this Action are responses 24 to prior communications, requests for information, or loan applications from the recipients, when 25 in fact the emails are ordinary unsolicited spams with messaging in the bodies attempting to sell 26 new loans to Plaintiffs.

27 71. Additionally, the Subject Lines in 18 other spams are misleading as to the contents of the 28 emails because either:

- 29 • The Subject Lines refer to “Your pending approval,” see Exhibit A6, which in 30 addition to being absolutely false (supra), are also misleading relative to the 31 bodies, in that the bodies are communicating that there are new lending options

1 that the recipient should compare; i.e. no choice has been made yet that could be 2 approved; or

- 3 • The Subject Lines advertise one loan amount, which is contradicted by the text in 4 the body. For example, JOBES received a spam with the Subject Line “Get up to 5 $45,000 to pay off debts at the best possible rate” but the body states that that she 6 can only “Borrow Up To $35k In As Little As 24 Hours” (emphasis added), see
7 Exhibit A10.

8 H. 19 Spams With Fully or Partially Missing Images are QUINSTREET Spams

9 72. Seventeen of the 418 spams (4.1%) are missing images. See Exhibit D, Column K. On 10 information and belief, those images at one time were hosted on third parties’ websites, and third 11 parties deleted those images before Plaintiffs could preserve evidence of those images.
12 Nevertheless, these are still QUINSTREET spams. Not only did the hyperlinks still link to 13 QUINSTREET websites, but these spams have other information in common with spams that do
14 display the images. For example, the spam in Exhibit A14 with missing images has the same
15 From Name, Subject Line, sender address in the body, and the same first line of text in the body, 16 even with the same spelling mistake (“Pay Off Your Debet [sic] & Conquer 2019!”) as does the 17 spam in Exhibit A1, for which Plaintiffs were able to capture the images identifying 18 QUINSTREET.

19 73. Additionally, two other spams are missing some images, but other visible information
20 confirms that these are QUINSTREET spams.

21 I. QUINSTREET is Strictly Liable for Advertising in Spams Sent By its Marketing 22 Partners; QUINSTREET’s Marketing Partners are Also Liable on the Basis of Civil 23 Conspiracy

24 74. QUINSTREET is strictly liable for advertising in the spams at issue even if third parties
25 hit the Send button. Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17529(j), (k); Hypertouch Inc. v. ValueClick Inc.
26 et al 192 Cal. App. 4th 805, 820-21 (2d Dist. 2011). Of course, QUINSTREET’s Marketing
27 Partners are also liable for conspiring with QUINSTREET to advertise in unlawful spams.

28 75. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that no one forced QUINSTREET 29 to outsource any of its advertising to third party spam networks and spammers, but 30 QUINSTREET chose to contract with and partner with its Marketing Partners – disreputable
31 entities who undisputedly actively took steps to hide their identities when registering domain

1 names and by failing to identify themselves in the bodies of the spams – to advertise its websites
2 for the purpose of driving traffic to its websites and selling its products and services for a profit.

3 76. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that QUINSTREET and its 4 Marketing Partners agreed to share the benefits and the risks of the marketing venture.

5 77. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that QUINSTREET and its 6 Marketing Partners formed a conspiracy (or conspiracies) to advertise QUINSTREET’s websites
7 and services by virtue of signing the Marketing Contracts. Defendants operated the conspiracy
8 by sending and advertising in spams pursuant to the Marketing Contracts. Defendants 9 committed wrongful acts pursuant to the conspiracy by advertising in unlawful spams, and 10 Plaintiffs were damaged by receiving those unlawful spams.

11 78. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that QUINSTREET may have 12 provided some of the content (i.e. From Names and Subject Lines) to its Marketing Partners, and 13 QUINSTREET and its Marketing Partners explicitly or tacitly agreed to use such content to send 14 and advertise in unlawful spams, and QUINSTREET’s Marketing Partners directed themselves 15 towards those wrongful goals by using that content in the spams that were sent. But, to the 16 extent that QUINSTREET’s Marketing Partners may have created certain false and 17 misrepresented elements of the spams (e.g. putting generic text in the From Name field,
18 including false and misrepresented Subject Lines, and including third parties’ domain names 19 without permission), QUINSTREET’s Marketing Partners must be held liable for violations of 20 Section 17529.5 because such wrongful acts were committed in accordance with the general
21 conspiracy to advertise QUINSTREET’s website and services.

22 79. To the extent that some of the Marketing Partners (e.g. the spam networks) did not 23 actually send the spams, and their domain names appear in the redirect links, they are still liable 24 for conspiring with QUINSTREET to advertise its websites and its services. But for these 25 Marketing Partners’ actions, the spams would not have happened because these Marketing 26 Partners provided codes and links for other Marketing Partners to use to effectuate the sending of 27 the spams and to ultimately enable the recipients to use QUINSTREET’s websites and services.

28 J. Plaintiffs Sue for Statutory Liquidated Damages; No Proof of Reliance or Actual 29 Damages is Necessary

30 80. The California Legislature defined liquidated damages to be $1,000 per spam. Cal. Bus.
31 & Prof. Code § 17529.5(b)(1)(B)(ii).

1 81. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that the $1,000 per spam figure is 2 comparable with damages in other areas of consumer protection law, e.g., $500-$1,500 statutory 3 damages per junk fax, pursuant to Cal. Business & Professions Code § 17538.43(b).

4 82. Plaintiffs' rightful and lawful demand for liquidated damages in the amount of $1,000 per 5 email is necessary to further the California Legislature's objective of protecting California
6 residents from unlawful spam.

7 83. Section 17529.5 does not require Plaintiffs to quantify their actual damages, allege or 8 prove reliance on the advertisements contained in the spams, or purchase the goods and services
9 advertised in the spams. Recipients of unlawful spam have standing to sue and recover
10 liquidated damages. Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17529.5(b)(1)(A)(iii); Hypertouch, 192 Cal. App.
11 4th at 820, 822-23, 828. Plaintiffs do not seek actual damages in this Action, only liquidated
12 damages. Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17529.5(b)(1)(B).

13 K. Defendants' Actions Were Willful and Preclude any Reduction in Statutory Damages

14 84. Section 17529.5 authorizes this Court to reduce the statutory damages to $100 per spam.
15 Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17529.5(b)(2). But, to secure the reduction, Defendants have the 16 burden of proof to demonstrate not only that they established practices and procedures to prevent 17 unlawful spamming, but also that they implemented those practices and procedures, and that the 18 practices and procedures are effective.

19 85. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants have not 20 established and implemented, with due care, practices and procedures reasonably designed to 21 effectively prevent unsolicited commercial e-mail advertisements that are in violation of 22 Section 17529.5.

23 86. Even if Defendants had established any practices and procedures to prevent advertising in 24 unlawful spam, such practices and procedures were not reasonably designed so as to be effective.

25 87. Even if Defendants reasonably designed practices and procedures to prevent advertising 26 in unlawful spam, such practices and procedures were not implemented so as to be effective.

27 88. Moreover, Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants
28 intended to deceive recipients of their spam messages through the use of generic/misrepresented
29 information in From Names, falsely-registered domain names used to send the spams, 30 false/misrepresented Subject Lines, third parties' domain names, and other names and physical 31 addresses in the spams that do not identify the senders, as described herein.

1 89. Third parties' domain names do not insert themselves into spams without permission.
2 Subject Lines and From Names do not write themselves. Domain names do not register
3 themselves. Obviously, nonexistent addresses are false on their face. The false and 4 misrepresented information contained in and accompanying the email headers are not "clerical
5 errors." Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants went to great 6 lengths to create falsified and misrepresented information contained in and accompanying the 7 email headers in order to deceive recipients, Internet Service Providers, and spam filters.

8 90. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants intended to profit,
9 actually profited, and continue to profit, and were unjustly enriched by, their wrongful conduct 10 as described herein.

11
12 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

13 [Violations of California Restrictions on Unsolicited Commercial Email,
14 California Business & Professions Code § 17529.5]
15 (Against All Defendants)

16 91. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate the foregoing paragraphs as though set forth in full herein.

17 92. Plaintiffs received all of the spams within one year prior to filing the Complaint.

18 93. Defendants advertised in/conspired to advertise in 418 unsolicited commercial email
19 advertisements that Plaintiffs received at their California electronic mail addresses that had: a)
20 materially falsified and/or misrepresented information contained in or accompanying the email
21 headers (including Subject Lines); b) Subject Lines misleading relative to the contents or subject 22 matter of the emails; and/or c) third parties' domain names without permission, in violation of 23 Section 17529.5. The unlawful elements of these spams represent willful acts of falsity and 24 deception, rather than clerical errors.

25 94. The California Legislature set liquidated damages at One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) per 26 email.

27 95. Defendants have not established and implemented, with due care, practices and 28 procedures to effectively prevent advertising in unlawful spams that violate Section 17529.5 that 29 would entitle them to a reduction in statutory damages.

30 96. Plaintiffs seek reimbursement of attorneys' fees and costs as authorized by Section 31 17529.5(b)(1)(C).

1 97. The attorneys' fees provision for a prevailing spam recipient is typical of consumer
2 protection statutes and supported by Cal. Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. By prosecuting this 3 action, Plaintiffs expect to enforce an important right affecting the public interest and thereby
4 confer a significant benefit on the general public or a large class of persons. The necessity and 5 financial burden of private enforcement is such as to make the award appropriate, and the 6 attorneys' fees should not, in the interest of justice, be paid out of the recovery of damages.

8 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment against Defendants as hereinafter set forth.

10 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

11 (Against All Defendants)

- 12 A. An Order from this Court declaring that Defendants violated California Business &
13 Professions Code § 17529.5 by advertising/conspiring to advertise in unlawful spams.
14 B. Liquidated damages against Defendants in the amount of $1,000 for each of 418 unlawful 15 spams, as authorized by Section 17529.5(b)(1)(B)(ii), for a total of $418,000, as follows:

16

PLAINTIFF	DAMAGES SOUGHT	PLAINTIFF	DAMAGES SOUGHT
COLE	$24,000	HOLDENM	$56,000
GRANT	$60,000	JOBES	$19,000

HOLDENC	$36,000	TOTAL	$418,000

18
19

- 20 C. Liquidated damages against each of the QUINSTREET entities, jointly and severally, in 21 the amount of $1,000 for each of the 418 unlawful spams ($418,000) in which it
22 advertised that Plaintiffs received, according to proof.
23 D. Liquidated damages against each DOE 1-500 (when their true names are learned and they 24 are added to the Action), jointly and severally with QUINSTREET, in the amount of 25 $1,000 for each of the unlawful spams that Plaintiffs received, for which they conspired
26 with QUINSTREET to advertise QUINSTREET, according to proof.
27 E. Attorneys' fees as authorized by Section 17529.5(b)(1)(C) and Cal. Code of Civil 28 Procedure § 1021.5 for violations of Section 17529.5.
29 F. Costs of suit.
30 G. Such other and further relief as the Court deems proper.
